

A statue of Admiral Coligny is to be erected in the open space facing the Rue de Rivoli, Paris, in front of the Oratoire, the church in which the Calvinists have worshipped ever since the revolution. The revenues of Time are sure if slow. The massacre of St. Bartholomew is thus to be partially atoned for.

We publish on the second page a second editorial from the Mississippi Valley Medical Monthly touching the disgraceful and discreditable condition of the so-called City Hospital. Coupled with the previous article it makes a revolting story, showing our humanity and loading us with the perpetuated disgrace of daily neglect and cruelty.

The people living on either side of the Mississippi river below Cairo will read with approval the allotments made by the River Commissioners, who seem to have been guided in their difficult task by a spirit of fairness looking to the instant needs of the people of threatened points, and the necessity for completing works already in progress. So far as Memphis is concerned she has abundant reason to be satisfied. And she is.

Recent at the death of Mr. Henry Furstenheim is general. His fellow merchants and the poor whom he succored are alike pronounced in their praise of one whose heart was easily moved, and whose hand was liberal in the dispensation of ready help and satisfying relief. His funeral today will be an occasion of profound public regret, and will be made memorable by the attendance of the most distinguished of our citizens. By thus honoring the memory of a useful and public spirited man we make a good example conspicuous for the rising and coming generations.

The visitors from Missouri, who take their departure today, have generally expressed themselves as much gratified at the heartiness of their reception here and surprised at the magnitude of the trade of the city and its beauty and proportions. But nothing so much impressed them as the position of Memphis on the Mississippi and its unrivaled facilities for the distribution of Western products. They came to us strangers, but they return to their homes declared and outspoken friends of a city that is nearer to the sea than St. Louis and better able to respond to their demands as sellers and buyers.

It is in the highest degree creditable to the people of Knoxville that they continue to conserve the good name of Shelby county as one of the most productive in the Mississippi valley by annual fairs, that we are very happy to know are growing in interest every year. Our special correspondent's dispatch on the second page will be read, we feel sure, with pleasurable interest by the farmers of other districts in the county and perhaps it may stimulate them to unite with their more enterprising brethren in the neighborhood of Knoxville and re-establish the system of county fairs that for years in ante bellum days won an enviable celebrity for Shelby.

The Memphis Jockey Club makes official announcement today of the fall meeting to commence on Tuesday, the 26th instant, and continue for five days. In another column we publish the entries for each day, from which it will be seen that many of the fastest horses in the country will participate. The track will be in excellent order, the grounds are handsomer than ever, and the officers have made all necessary arrangements to maintain the high character of the club sports at home and abroad for good sport, the largest latitude consistent with order, decency and fair dealing. We confidently predict that the attendance from abroad will be larger than during any of the preceding seasons.

Our esteemed friend "Boggy" Johnston, who is known far and wide for the interest he takes in anything that will benefit Arkansas, has for months been working with all his might for the fair to be held next week at Pine Bluff by the colored farmers of that State, and he has, we are glad to know, succeeded in accomplishing a great deal, enough to encourage the industrious colored people to open the fair on the 19th instant under circumstances of exceptional cheer. The list of premiums is very encouraging, and there is every reason for believing that the fair will be one of the marked successes of the year. "Boggy" is a benefactor whose good wishes for struggling people constantly guide his hands and his heart.

WHAT Mr. Parker, of Dyersburg, says on the sixth page in answer to Mr. Fowkes is a clear and manly statement of party usage and custom, and the duty that rests upon every man to be guided by that usage and that custom. So long as parties exist, and they will no doubt continue to exist until the dawn of the millennium, they can only be controlled and governed by established rules. And these rules must be imperative and immediate. Without them the law of the majority would prove a farce, and individual whim, caprice or ambition would prevail to the confusion of its affairs, inviting inevitable ruin. Mr. Fowkes will, we hope, see his duty by the light of Mr. Parker's statement, and yield gracefully to the will and wish of the majority. By doing so he will cement the success of the party and his own continued usefulness as an esteemed member of it. Even in so strong a Democratic county as Dyer schism must not be encouraged or condoned.

A CHRISTIAN MESSAGE

FROM THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL TO THE

Congregational Church—The Debate on the Proposed Change of Name Begun—Thanksgiving Day.

CHICAGO, Ill., October 13.—At the Episcopal convention this morning the standing committee on Prayer Book, to whom had been referred the resolutions offered by a lay delegate from Central Pennsylvania, to the effect that the convention memorialize the President of the United States to appoint an earlier day for the annual Thanksgiving, reported that in view of the long established custom of observing Thanksgiving Day in November, it was undesirable for the convention to ask the civil authorities to make any change. They asked to be discharged from any further consideration of the subject. The report was passed on to the action of the convention.

The Rev. Phillips Brooks offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the House of Bishops concurring, that the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America read certain greetings to the assembly held at the late annual Convention of the Congregational Church, now in session in this city, and express to them our devout hope that our deliberations may minister together for the glory of God and advancement of a common Christianity.

In offering this resolution Dr. Brooks said that it did not seem to him that any remarks were needed to insure its adoption.

The Rev. Dr. Leffingwell, of Quincy, said before adopting resolutions he would like to inquire into the doctrine of discipline and worship of that body. Did anybody know what its standard of belief was? He thought they might as well propose to send greetings to the Unitarians. He moved that the resolution be laid on the table. The motion was lost by a vote of 84 to 184.

The Rev. Dr. Hopkins, of Central Pennsylvania, said that a great many memorials had been presented from all the country in favor of Christian unity, and he thought the motion of the delegates from Quincy was a slap in the face to all who were desirous of having Christian unity. There was a great difference between Unitarians and Congregationalists. As there was nothing in Congregationalism to distinguish them from Evangelical Christianity, the convention should show by the adoption of the resolution that they meant what they said about Christianity.

The Rev. J. S. S. of Northern New Jersey, moved to amend by adding the words "and that we assure them that we earnestly pray for such peace and unity as is according to God's will, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

The Rev. Dr. Brooks accepted the amendment. The Rev. E. L. Stoddard, of Northern New Jersey, offered as a substitute that the words "Congregational brethren" be used instead of "Congregational Church."

After general discussion the substitute was adopted by a vote of 162 to 112. The regular order of the day, which proposed the change of name, was called up. The secretary then read together two resolutions one by Mr. Judd, abolishing the name "Protestant Episcopal," and by Dr. Adams, substituting that of "American Catholic."

Dr. Dix ruled that Mr. Judd's resolution took precedence, and Mr. Judd then took the floor in behalf of his resolution. Mr. Coffey, the Rev. Mr. Davenport, and Judge Stewart, of Maryland, also took part in the discussion, which lasted until 10 o'clock. Adjournment.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

Death of Jack Agery, the Noted Colored Democrat.

[SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.]

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., October 13.—Major J. W. Calaway, of this city, today received intelligence from United States Senator J. K. Jones, at Washington, of the death there yesterday of the great Arkansas colored Democratic politician, Jack Agery. On receiving this freedom, Agery adopted the political faith of all his previous owners as his doctrine and as subsequent years opened up to him, giving additional experience, he grew to be a man whom it was no easy matter to get the best of in a political discussion. He stumped Virginia for Louis Delaune in 1854, and has an acquaintance among the citizens of the commonwealth second to none of our public men. He was in Washington on official business when he was stricken down, and received the fostering care during his illness of Attorney General Garland, United States Senator James K. Jones and Col. Jacob Frolich. His remains will be sent here for interment, and his funeral will doubtless be attended by notable persons from all over Arkansas, who were and admired his good judgment in taking the step he did on the light of freedom being turned in on his soul.

COLUMBUS, MISS.

The Illinois Central Survey—Death of a Prominent Lady.

[SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.]

COLUMBUS, Miss., October 13.—Mrs. Lucy Winston, wife of Capt. William Winston and daughter of Mr. James W. Hinton, of this place, died last night at 7 o'clock. Mrs. Winston had been in poor health for several months, and spent most of the summer at Waukegan and other health resorts, but to no purpose, and returned home a few weeks ago. She was buried this afternoon, the funeral being one of the largest ever witnessed in Columbus.

The Illinois Central surveying party finished their work here today and will leave in the morning for West Point, and will run a line from there to a point eight miles from Columbus, on the Muldrow survey, as the people of West Point have offered $75,000 to have that place as the junction of the branch instead of Muldrow.

ried in a beautiful cemetery given by the City Council. Mr. J. C. Latham, a New York banker, who was a Confederate soldier, will erect a handsome granite monument, in addition to several individual monuments, one of which will be placed at the grave of Gen. Jas. S. Jackson.

MARKS, BATE, HOUSE & CO.

WARNED OF THE NOMINATION OF DR. DULANEY.

Who Led the "Bob Taylor" Crowd in the Legislature That Elected Howell K. Jackson.

Knoxville Journal. The untimely death of rock-ribbed old Sullivan, on Monday last, nominated Dr. Nat. Dulaney as their candidate for Representative after more than 200 ballots. Dr. Dulaney—an excellent gentleman by the way—is a cousin of B. B. and Alf. He was a member of the Legislature in 1881, and although he was understood to be a decided friend of Senator Bailey in his contest for reelection, the ties of kindred proved stronger than mere personal preference and "Cousin Nat" felt constrained to cast his vote for "Cousin Bob" for the Senate, he having, contrary to all expectation, on the part of Senator Bailey, "conceded" at the last hour to "allow his name to be used" in that connection. We well remember the friends of Senator Bailey—including the Senator, himself—were on edge, after his defeat, in declaring that the defection caused by Bob Taylor's unexpected candidature was the real cause of Senator Bailey's defeat, and the few votes drawn from him by B. B. having thrown him out of the lead and ultimately caused his overthrow. We remember, too, that it was openly charged at the time, in the hotel corridor, that Bailey had only secured Senator Bailey at Washington that he would not be a candidate, but that he (Bailey) should have the benefit of his influence in the contest. All this was then a matter of common talk and free discussion. The censure was not offered. Dr. Dulaney as much as at the Hon. Bob, he has conceded by most persons that "Cousin Nat" was in some degree excusable for supporting "Cousin Bob" upon his demand or request for his vote. But what it will do to him is interesting for Marks, Bate, House & Co. to know. Dr. Dulaney, it is said, will again lead the late Tennessee Democratic forces—whatever they may amount to—in the next Senatorial contest and they may rest assured that "Cousin Nat" is no dead-head in such undertakings. They may yet find it in themselves to elect Dulaney, in the absence of any other candidate, to the Senate. We venture to suggest to them, now, that their only safety lies in throwing a few well-placed blanks on "Bob Taylor boom" as it rolls by on the return toward the east. The scheme for Bob's nomination was quite neatly and covertly managed. The collapse of his "boom" could be quite as successfully managed by such adroit manipulations. We claim that nothing for this warning or this remedial suggestion. There is blood on the Senatorial moon.

NASHVILLE, TENN.

Important Meeting of the Directors of the N. O. and St. L.

[SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.]

NASHVILLE, Tenn., October 13.—An important meeting of the directors of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad was held today. President J. W. Thomas was authorized to act for the company and make contracts with the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad Company for the extension of the road from Nashville to Chattanooga. The question of the extension from Elora to Huntsville was referred to President Thomas, who was authorized to contract for the building of the road whenever he was satisfied as to the subscriptions to the amount of $50,000. In the matter of the Sparta extension President Thomas was authorized to contract with the Ben-Hur Coal Company for this road to their coal fields. The two boards, that of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company and the Nashville and Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad Company both being in union, the contract which has been pending for some time was closed by which the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company sold to the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railroad Company its road from Cowan to Tracy City for $500,000. The road will pass into the hands of the purchaser on the 1st of November. The president was directed to complete the road up Sequatchie Valley to the coal mines of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company.

BROWNVILLE, TENN.

Death of a Highly Respected Lady—Seriously Ill.

[SPECIAL TO THE APPEAL.]

BROWNVILLE, Tenn., October 13.—Mrs. W. C. Nixon, one of our noblest Christian women, died last night, aged about 65 years, after a painful illness of some two weeks. Few ladies are more generally beloved for beauty and gentleness of character than was Mrs. Nixon by all who knew her. The funeral took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and was very largely attended. The Rev. T. W. Raymond, the pastor of the Presbyterian Church, of which she was a member, performed the services.

Dr. Rogers, of Memphis, was telegraphed for today to consult in the case of young Robert Hayward, who is still quite ill.

The Damage by Tuesday's Storm

GALVESTON, TEX., October 13.—Last night's furious gales subsided toward morning and today is clear. The damage to shipping and railroad property is slight and beyond the wetting of a couple of barges laden with cotton, on the Gulf side of the city, no serious damage is reported.

Said to Have Sailed for England, MONTREAL, October 13.—It is said that Neel, the Chicago defaulter, who was here the other day, is now on his way to England, accompanied by his wife. It was rumored that he could not be legally detained here.

Mr. CHARLES SCHREINER, foreman of a large meat house in Baltimore, Md., says: "Salvation Oil acts like magic on a sprained wrist." Price 25 cents.

POWDERLY RE-ELECTED

WITHOUT OPPOSITION FOR HIS EIGHTH CONSECUTIVE TERM.

The Office of Secretary-Treasurer Divided and Mr. Turner Elected Treasurer.

RICHMOND, Va., October 13.—The delegates to the General Assembly met this morning and adjourned until their attendance at Army Hall, where the sessions are held. The most important work of the convention was begun yesterday, when the General Master Workman declared amendments to the constitution in order and was sustained in his decision by the assembly despite the objections of a few. This work of amending the constitution was resumed this morning and prosecuted throughout the session. The proposed amendment to the constitution extending to two years the term of all general officers excepting those of the members of the Co-operative Board was taken up and adopted. The terms of the members of the Co-operative Board remain as present. Changes in the constitution required a two-thirds vote for their adoption, and the calling of the roll of 612 delegates consumed a good deal of time. When that matter had been disposed of the regular order of business was suspended and the General Assembly proceeded to the election of general officers.

General Master Workman Powderly and General Worthy Foreman Griffith were re-elected to the offices they have already held for seven consecutive years. This afternoon the assembly will continue the election of officers.

Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session it was decided to divide the office of General Secretary-Treasurer. Charles H. Titchmar, of Maryland, was elected in nomination for the office of Secretary by James Campbell, of Pittsburgh, Pa. The nomination was recorded by Tom O'Reilly, of New York. The only candidate placed in nomination in opposition was Joseph Buchanan, of Denver, Colo. Buchanan was elected by more than 130 majority. Frederick Turner, the present General Secretary-Treasurer, was nominated for General Treasurer by R. L. Trevellick, of Detroit, Mich., and seconded by James E. Quinn, of New York. The only candidate nominated in opposition was H. B. Meyer, of New Jersey. Mr. Turner was elected by more than 200 majority. Balloting for members of the Executive Board then began. The following names were placed in nomination: John W. Hays, New Jersey; Thomas B. McGee, New York; R. B. Kelley, Ohio; T. B. McGuire, New York; Tom O'Reilly, New York; Joseph Buchanan, Colorado; W. H. Mullen, Richmond, Va.; Ira B. Agnew, Baltimore; John Howe, Massachusetts.

An informal ballot was taken in which Mr. Hays led in the number of votes polled, with Mr. Barry second. Some delegates wanted to continue voting, but a motion to adjourn until tomorrow was put and carried. The nomination of T. V. Powderly for General Master Workman was made by E. F. Gould of Indianapolis, and seconded by Tom O'Reilly of New York. When the nomination and election of General Master Workman was declared in order today Mr. Powderly was elected the chair, the General Worthy Foreman taking his place. A hundred delegates shouted: "Have the election made by acclamation." When Mr. Griffith put the question there was a storm of "ayes." When the "ayes" were called for there was one solitary "no." It came from Henry B. Meyer, who heads the delegation from the District Assembly of New Jersey. This delegation wears a yellow badge, with the motto "Solid for Harmony." There was no candidate placed in nomination in opposition to Mr. Powderly and he received the votes of the 647 delegates present. When Mr. Griffith was nominated for General Secretary-Treasurer, the only candidate nominated in opposition was R. B. Bennett, of Illinois. Mr. Bennett received only fifty votes and Mr. Griffith's election was made unanimous. There will be no election for general officers in the regular session now held by Homer L. McGaw, as the office has been abolished by the adoption of an amendment to the constitution.

Aid Iron Earth Company.

GENTLEMEN—I have been sorely afflicted with rheumatism, together with dyspepsia and chronic diarrhoea, for about four years. During this time I have had many attacks of acute rheumatism, causing my joints to enlarge, thereby producing great pain and much suffering. After trying many remedies from which I experienced no relief I concluded to give the Acid Iron Earth a trial. After using one bottle I was entirely cured of both dyspepsia and chronic diarrhoea and much relieved of rheumatism. After using the second bottle I improved rapidly, and continued to improve until I had taken the fourth bottle, when I found myself entirely relieved of the rheumatism and had gained sixteen pounds in flesh. I now feel perfectly well in every respect, and do cheerfully recommend the Acid Iron Earth to all who may be afflicted as I have been. Respectfully,
